JazzHeaven.com Launches Jazz Instructional Videos and Interviews with the Greats - from Konitz to Harland

JazzHeaven.com is proud to announce the launch of its website, which features Jazz Instructional Videos & Interviews with many of the greatest Jazz Musicians, from saxophone icon Lee Konitz to new jazz drumming star Eric Harland.

JazzHeaven.com Founder Falk Willis had been a professional Jazz Drummer himself for 14 years, playing with the likes of Kurt Rosenwinkel, Mark Turner & Kenny Wheeler, as well as running his own businesses for 10 years after that.

The idea for all of this was born, when Willis asked himself the question "what would be a DREAM COME TRUE for the aspiring jazz drummer/bassist/pianist, etc.?"

Having been a young aspiring jazz musician himself two decades earlier, the answer was easy:

A website with many of today's leading jazz musicians giving jazz video lessons, with rock-solid how-to information on jazz improvisation - accessible instantly, no matter where one lives!

After over two years of non-stop work with a crack team of videographers, video editors & audio engineers, investing in cutting edge video & audio recording gear, robbing a couple of banks in the process, and establishing a dedicated video recording studio in Brooklyn, NY, the first 31 videos were filmed, and the first thirteen JazzHeaven.com videos are now ready for release:

Kenny Werner: Effortless Mastery: The 4 Steps
Kenny Werner: Effortless Mastery of Melody, Harmony & Rhythm
Jerry Bergonzi: Creating a Jazz Vocabulary Vol. 1, Vol. 2, Vol. 3
Jerry Bergonzi: Saxophone Mastery
Lee Konitz: Talking & Playing
Jean-Michel Pilc: True Jazz Improvisation
Oz Noy: Guitar Improvisation Workout
Oz Noy: Play-Along Workout
Eric Harland: The Yin & Yang of Jazz Drumming

Ari Hoenig: Melodic Drumming

Upcoming (already filmed) instructional videos include Ingrid Jensen, Mike Clark & Paul

Jackson, Vincent Herring, Lage Lund, Gilad Hekselman, Geoffrey Keezer, Enrico Pieranunzi, Walt Weiskopf, David Kikoski, Sergio Brandao, Lincoln Goines, Portinho, Joel Frahm, Jamey Haddad & many more to come.

Each instructional video features a lesson part of at least 90 minutes (some considerably longer), as well as a 60-minute interview with the artist.

JazzHeaven.com instructional videos are available in the following formats:

- * DVD (region-free, shipping worldwide)
